POLITICAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

This is the way an enterprising Jackson vendor of amber fluid, decorated his place during the encampment: "Fresh La G. A. R."

When democrats talk of their party being enlisted for the war, somehow or other you expect to hear the old (rebel) yell and see a flag bereft of some stars and shorn of some stripes.—Wheeling Intelligence.

If "the tariff-ridden" people of the United States are so impoverished why are our free trade English capitalists so anxious to purchase our manufacturing? There are literally millions of English money for investment in American enterprises.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Don Platt describes the democratic party as "the organized ignorance of the country." Mr. Platt ought to know what he is talking about, for he has been editing a free trade paper for the last few months and trying to help this "organized ignorance" recapture the offices.—Boston Journal.

Two prominent members of the Grand Army of the Republic were appointed to good positions by Gov. Luce last week. Gen. S. B. Daboll, of St. Johns, to the Judgeship of the 23rd circuit, and Col. Geo. W. Devlin, of Jackson, to be Qr. Mr. General.

A quarter of a century ago most of our paper was manufactured abroad. Now we manufacture for our own markets, import hardly any, and export some to Australia, Mexico and South America. Will some free trade journal kindly tell us whether this development of our paper industry would have been possible if there had been no protection?—Boston Journal.

"The democrats were just as loyal as the republicans" shouts a bourbon contemporary, in a vigorous article on the late war. "Many democrats" would sound better. Every democrat wasn't a rebel—no siree—but by the great horn spoon, every rebel was a democrat; now, wasn't he?—Detroit Tribune.

In referring to the collapse of the Salt Trust, the Detroit Free Press says: "There does not seem to be any overwhelming anxiety to buy the shares of the new American Salt Co. There may be some slight suspicion that the nabobs who have laid such shrewd plans to extort money from the public may have an equally crafty scheme to freeze out small shareholders." This is rather rough on Burt and other free traders.

The Chicago & Grand Trunk Railroad Company have decided to put in a mile of side track on the south side of the State Fair Grounds, at Lansing, enabling exhibitors to reach the grounds direct with stock and machinery. This outlay of several thousand dollars will do much to make the coming fair a success. It shows a spirit of enterprise and accommodation that will be fully appreciated.

Will our democratic brethren who are howling about "plutocrats" and "railway monopoly" and all that sort of thing, please publish the interesting little news item that C. P. Huntington, who sold $2,250,000 of Chesapeake & Ohio railway stock the other day, and has as much more he is suffering to sell, is the gentleman who is backing the New York Star, the only "true-blue" democratic daily in the metropolis, and which is devoted to bawling Cleveland and advocating free trade?—Blade.

"Grand Army of Beggars."

The red-mouthed rebel editor of the Nashville American is the only thing the Detroit Tribune can think of by way of reply to the American's criticisms of the high-falutin performances of the Grand Army of Beggars. Whenever a bloody-shirt flannel of the Tribune stripe lacks for argument, as he very frequently does, he always breaks loose in this way. If the rebel had as many red mouths as Hydra such a retort is warranted to stop them all.

But it so happens that the Tribune did "think of" and publish much more than that "by way of reply" to the American's contemptible fling at the G. A. R., which it calls the "Grand Army of Beggars." The Tribune called things by their right names, too—the American doesn't deny that. And when it talks about "bloody shirt," the American waves square rods of it in less time than any republican paper of the North does the same number of square inches.

There are a few bourbon papers in the south that can't read the old flag, the G. A. R. and themselves with decent respect, but the American is not one of them. Its articles of sectional hate and venom are so rank that Northern Democrat papers dare not republish them.—Detroit Tribune.

WASHINGTON LETTER

(From Our Regular Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2, '89.

The President has returned to the White House, where he will remain until next Tuesday when he starts for Bar Harbor to pay Secretary Blaine a visit. He will spend the entire day of Wednesday in Boston where he will be met by Walker Blaine.

Postmaster General Wannamaker has received the resignation of Postmaster Paul, of Milwaukee, whose administration of that office was so severely scored by the recent report of the Civil Service Commission.

The news of the seizure of the Canadian sealing vessel "Black Diamond" by the United States Cutter "Rush," for taking seals in Behrings Sea, is being discussed with a great deal of interest here, and there are plenty of people who believe we shall have a row with England if we do not back down. I don't know about that, but its dollars to ginger cakes that there will be no repetition of the disgraceful back down indulged in by the Cleveland administration when similar seizures were made three years ago. The law says that all vessels caught in taking seals in Behrings sea shall be seized, confiscated and sold, and it is the intention of the present administration to see that the law is obeyed. The President issued a proclamation of warning in March. If England does not like our laws, so much the worse for England.

Hon. Wm. McKinley, the popular Representative from Ohio, is in town this week. He has been quietly resting in the mountains of Pennsylvania for some weeks. He does not say so, but from his manner I think he is quite confident of being elected Speaker of the House. He says there is no doubt about Ohio electing Gov. Foraker, the State ticket and a republican majority in the legislature, ensuring a republican successor to Senator Payne. Maj. McKinley will take an active part in the Ohio campaign.

While the opponents of the civil service law are letting some hard lies, the Commission is not idle. It proposes to ask the President to place all chiefs of divisions in the classified service. It is not probable that the request will be seriously considered, to say nothing of being granted by the President, for the fact cannot be denied by any careful observer that the civil service law is steadily growing more popular.

It has been decided by the Commission engaged in investigating the rating of pensions to make a preliminary report to Secretary Noble next week and leave it to him whether they shall continue. During the month of December 1888, when the office was in charge of Gen. Black, they found the total number of reissues to have been 1,500, of which about 1 in 15 were re-rated, and during the month of May, 1889, when Mr. Tanner was in charge the reissues were 1,800 with the percentage of reratings slightly increased. The object of this comparison was to discover whether there had been any change in the methods of making reratings. The preliminary report will show that there has been no gross violations of law, nor any discoveries of a sensational or serious character. This will be good news to everybody, except the newspaper correspondents who have been filling their papers up with stories of the terrible condition of things in the Pension office.

When Governor Foraker was renominated there were a lot of "smart aleck" democrats running around Washington saying that Senator Sherman would sink and remain in Europe where he is now, until after the election. They feel like fools now that the Senator has written to say that he will be home in time to take an active part in re-electing Governor Foraker. Of course no republican ever believed that John Sherman would sink. He isn't built that way. He is a republican because he believes in the principles advocated by the party and not because it does or does not nominate any particular man for any office.

Postmaster General Wannamaker has requested the Secretary of the Treasury to suspend the payment of all telegraph bills until the question of rates is settled. The telegraph companies object to the proposed rate—one will per word—but will go right along doing the Government business, trusting to get a fair price for it.

Secretary Tracy has appointed a board of naval officers to make recommendations for the building up and maintaining of an efficient navy.

The President will go to Indianapolis on the 22nd inst., when the ceremony of laying the corner stone of the soldiers monument is to be held.

The Detroit News says: "Here's a health to brave Corporal Tanner, who fought for the star spangled banner, amidst bullets and shells and fierce rebel yells; in a wild emotional manner. His drill you would surely admire it, for you know it is hard to acquire it. He handled a gun as though it were fun, to cock it and aim it, and fire it. And when he had conquered secession, he joined the republican procession; despising the dumpy, he flourished his lamp, and of politics a profession. To provide for 'the boys' was his mission, and give them a good fat position. But what would you suppose, his daughter he chose for a place on the pension commission. Why shouldn't he?"

No for the Re-union!

All those who wish to go to West Branch to attend the re-union, can leave Grayling at six o'clock, Tuesday morning. Coaches sufficient to accommodate all will be attached to the early freight. Fare for the round trip $1.20.

The Century Magazine.

A GENUINE midsummer number is the CENTURY for August, with its opening article on the "Stream of Pleasure—the River Thames," by the Pennells, husband and wife, who have written about and minutely pictured that gay and thronged resort of boats and bonters. Little and big there are twenty in this article alone. Mrs. Foote's "Afternoon at a Ranch" has also a midsummer air.

Of other articles nothing is more important than the chapters of the Lincoln history, which describes the "Chicago Surrender," "Conspiracies in the North," and "Lincoln and the Churches." In the last named chapter the authors discuss Lincoln's religious character.

A highly interesting chapter in the Kennan series describes "State Criminals at the Kara Mines."

George W. Cable gives the true and extraordinary history of "The Haunted House in Royal Street," Edward Bellamy, author of "Looking Backward," has a short story called "A Positive Romance."

The frontispiece of this number of the Magazine is a portrait of Alfred Tennyson from one of Mrs. Cameron's celebrated photographs; and in connection with this portrait the Rev. Dr. Van Dyke gives the results of his study of Tennyson's use of the Bible.

There is an unusual number of poems in the midsummer CENTURY, including a long one by Robert Burns Wilson—"A Song of the Woodland Spirit," and shorter pieces by Harry Stillwell Edwards, Mrs. Moulton, Frank Dempster Sherman, Celia Thaxter and others.

In "Open Letters" there is a communication by George L. Kitcher, of rue Grand Army, on "Union Veterans and their Pensions," which gives a sketch of the various pension schemes hitherto presented by the Grand Army committees, the estimated amounts of their costs, and the total expenses of the Government on this account at present.

The preliminary work of the State Fair to be held at Lansing, September 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13, is progressing rapidly. There are eighty-five men employed, and 1,000,000 shingles and 500,000 feet of lumber will be required in the erection of additional buildings. Ten acres will be devoted to exhibition of machinery. There will be 3,600 feet in length of horse stalls, 3,100 feet of cattle stalls, 1,200 feet each for swine and sheep. The machinery hall will have an area of 8,500 square feet, and the carriage hall 6,500. Nine hundred feet of water mains are now laid in the grounds. The New Grand Stand, 200 feet long is a model for that purpose. Officers are provided for telegraph and telephone systems and for the officers. The race track, seventy-five feet in width, is one of the best in any state. The grounds are dry in any weather, with abundance of shade trees, and cannot be excelled.

The silence maintained by the bourbon press regarding that contract for foreign enameled bricks for the congressional library at Washington is very painful. The democrat editors were very gleeful for a time over what they supposed was a republican transaction, but since learning that the contract was made by one of Cleveland's appointees and under the Cleveland administration they have been doing the clam with all their might.—Detroit Tribune.

Conductor Kelsey who runs one of the passenger trains on the Mackinaw branch from Bay City north, was waylaid by a footpad Wednesday night at Mackinaw City, who attempted to knock him down and rob him. —Osego Co. Herald.

One Charles Smith, who claimed to hail from Bay City, and to have been at work for the past two months at Stephen's camp, sneaked a pair of pants from Sinclair's store, and sold them at a saloon. He will board with McCullough ten days.

The Chicago Newspaper Union, says: "The Camp Guard is a new paper published at Grayling in the interest of the Grand Army of the Republic." This will be news to the members of the order here and elsewhere in the State.

Doc. Nauman has secured the order from the state quartermaster's department for a cannon to be used during the G. A. R. encampment here. He expects to have a trip after it, however, as the department is rather dilatory in attending to such matters. —West Branch Democrat.

Prof. R. H. Huntley has secured a class of 28 musical scholars for instruction at Grayling. He is to Sunday in that pleasant town for awhile and play the organ in the M. E. church. He is way up on sacred as well as comic and sentimental music. —Osego Co. Herald.

An entertainment will be given at Grand Army hall, to-morrow evening, of photographs of views of battle scenes and army life taken during the late rebellion. They will be shown by the aid of a Magic Lantern, with a calcium light. Admission 20 cents; children 10 cents.

Mr. Willits, assistant secretary of agriculture, is about to make a visit to his old stamping ground, the agricultural college and farm at Lansing. Look out for a howl from the Democrat about the misappropriation by republicans of the hard earned taxes paid by him and his party.

E. J. Pfeiffer, of West Bay City, has just built a very neat house for Garrett Mead at Grayling. Last week he built a resort at Portage Lake, nearly four miles west of Grayling, the size of which is 50x20 with wing 20x14. It is to be used for picnics and parties. —Bay City Times.

Charles D. Vincent, well known here, met with a serious accident last Friday. He was working on John Love's barn in Beaver Creek township, slipped and fell 18 feet to the ground, striking on his left side and hip. Dr. Revell was called and carefully examined him but found no bones broken though he was severely bruised. He is recovering nicely. —Ros. News.

The posters announcing the dates and programme of the reunion have been distributed about town and are very neat and attractive. The programme, which we have twice published, cannot but be an interesting one. Come to West Branch on the 13th, 14th and 15th inst., and bring your families with you. —West Branch Times.

The I. O. O. F. Picnic at School Section Lake, last Thursday, was a success. The attendance was larger than anticipated, the weather was all that could be desired, the music by the Gaylord City Band was excellent and the oration by Nelson Sharpe, of West Branch, was a masterly effort appropriate to the occasion. Everybody was satisfied and everybody was happy.

The improved Roscommon sheep, native to the old province of Connaught, the principal sheep-raising section of Ireland, are illustrated in the American Agriculturist for August. The old breed has been greatly improved by careful selection and the infusion of Leicester blood. The Roscommons are hardy and prolific long-wooled sheep, well adapted to a brook country.

The wild man has again appeared. He has left Roscommon county and was last seen in the woods in Locke, Ingham county. He lives on milk, stolen potatoes, roast lamb and the like. A party of farmers are going after him with their guns. —Det. News.

It was the roast lamb that took him away as there is not a sheep in the county, to our knowledge.

Messrs. Lyon & Connor, successors to C. M. W. Blakeslee, have arrived with a large stock of seasonable goods which they are now opening and will soon have ready for the inspection of the public. With their experience in trade and the reputation they have gained in their old home, our citizens may well expect satisfactory service at their hands.

Clara Canfield, of Gaylord, known as "Mrs. Al. Demorest," shot Holley Hestburn in the abdomen Saturday night. Clara claims a man was at her door trying to force it open, and that she shot into the air to scare him, and hit Hestburn, who was some distance away on the side walk. Hestburn will die. Clara and Al. Demorest held forth at Newberry, formerly, and they are a bad lot. Hestburn is a respectable man with a family.

The editor of the Mendon News looks wisdom naturally. Here is a solid chunk of it: "An editor works 3051 days per year to get out 52 issues of a paper; that's labor. Once in a while somebody pays him for a year's subscription; that's capital. Once in a while some son of a gun takes the paper for a year or two and vanishes without paying for it; that's anarchy. But later on justice will overtake the last named creature, for there is a place where he will get his deserts; that's h—sheel."

Clover and timothy are in a sense tillage grasses, and on dry lands require to be renewed every four or five years. The clover lasts two years, then for two years more its decaying roots insure good crops of timothy. In the fifth the grass will often be so light as to be unprofitable. It will then be best to till the land two seasons preparatory to laying it down to grass. The period of timothy can be considerably prolonged by applying a full dressing of stable manure soon after the second year's mowing. —Ohio Farmer.

The weekly crop bulletin places the mean daily temperature for the past week at 3.1° below normal. The average total rainfall was .04 degrees above the average. In some sections considerable hail fell, and injured growing crops. The wetter has been generally favorable to crops, although cool nights have somewhat retarded the growth of corn.

Wheat threshing is in full blast and reports indicate that the berry is shrunken—in some sections badly so. Oats, potatoes and barley promise a good crop.

A Newport Story, a "Co-Ed." story, an Army story, a Paris Exposition story, a story of "Two Jacks," a story of Two Pilgrims, are some of the attractions of Demorest Monthly Magazine for August, which makes it just such a number as everybody wants in the hot summer months. The articles are also of timely interest, including an account of the Paris Exposition, giving a view of the whole grounds; "In Central Park," beautifully illustrated in water-colors and in black-and-white; The pleasures and pains of Amateur Photography, by Alexander Black, illustrated with numerous pictures taken by amateurs; "How to prevent and remove wrinkles," the second in the series entitled, "Aids to Beauty;" besides numerous other articles on subjects interesting in the family circle, including the health, happiness, amusement and decoration of the household; and there are over one hundred illustrations. In fact the August number, which is just out, is a wonderful production, and worth many times its cost. Published by W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14th Street, New York.

CEDED MILLIONS OF ACRES.

Success of the Chippewa Commission in the Northwest—Rights for Lumbermen. The Chippewa Commission have arrived at Brainerd, Minn., from Red Lake, where they secured the signatures of a large number in excess of that required. At White Earth the signing was almost unanimous. Thus far the Indians have ceded between three and four million acres, containing the most valuable as well as the most extensive pine forest in the Northwest. The commission also secured for the lumbermen the free use of all streams running through the ceded reservation. Some of the negotiations have been long and tedious, but universal satisfaction to the Indians has been the result. The commission is on its way to the Pillagers on the Lake Lake reservation.

BY FLOODS AND FIRE.

Great Distresses Reported in Japan and China.

Advices by the steamer City of Peking from Hong Kong and Yokohama are as follows: There is much suffering in Foo Chow, China, caused by a late fire which destroyed three-fifths of the city. It is difficult for many poor people to find means to sustain life. Fortunately, however, rice is exceedingly cheap this year. Heavy rains fell in certain districts of Japan last month. At Aomori and in the neighborhood on the 20th ult. 500 houses were either washed away or knocked down, and twenty people drowned. At Hita, on the same date, 300 houses were washed away and nine people drowned. In celebration of 1,000 miles of railway in Japan a sumptuous banquet was given on the 10th ult. One hundred and eighteen students were graduated from the Imperial University of Japan last month.

TAKING THE CENSUS.

An Expensive and Laborious Piece of Work Begun.

Superintendent of the Census Porter has started the preliminary work for taking the eleventh census, and will soon be in his new quarters. To cover the vast territory of this country, which embraces 3,607,000 square miles and nearly 70,000,000 people, over 40,000 enumerators will be employed, and about 2,000 clerks to compile their returns. The last census was restricted to a cost of $3,000,000, but for the coming year an appropriation of $4,000,000 exclusive of the cost of printing, engraving, and binding. There will be but thirteen volumes in the eleventh census, instead of twenty-two as in the last, and it is hoped to have them all finished inside of five years, instead of eight years, which it took for the previous census.

POSTAGE STAMPS.

The Number and Value Used Annually by the Postoffice Department.

A statement prepared by the Postoffice Department shows that annually about 2,000,000,000 postage stamps are used in this country, for which the Government receives $10,000,000. These stamps cost the Government as follows: Common variety, a fraction over 8 cents, special delivery 18 cents, and postal cards 40 cents per thousand. As the lowest denomination stamp is for $10 per thousand, the Government reaps an enormous profit, which goes toward paying the expenses of carrying the mails, etc.

THE DEVILISH ROUTED.

General Grenfell Scores a Great Victory in Egypt.

Gen. Grenfell captured 1,000 prisoners and several thousand weapons in a recent Egyptian engagement. The devilish loss in killed and wounded was 1,700. The remnants of the devilish army have been driven into the desert, where the wretched men must die of hunger and thirst. It has been decided to occupy Sorra, a strongly fortified place. The troops are returning to Cairo, and the invasion is ended.
